

New Superintendent By David Ackerman, Superintendent

Well, this is my first Lion tracks article where I get front page status. It seems hard to believe that I have been a part of Central Lyon for four years, and that I now have the opportunity to serve the district in the role of superintendent. I take this responsibility very seriously, and continue to be honored and humbled to have been selected for this position.

It has always been my contention that a school district does not exist to employ adults, it exists to educate the children of the district. Therefore, all decisions should be made in regards to what is best for the students. The adults, however, have a huge responsibility role in shaping the school into a positive learning environment for the students. It truly does take all kinds of people to make a school successful, and I am proud to be a part of a great group of people who take great pride in their work, and who call Central Lyon “their” school. We have a great school system, one that I am not only proud to work for, but also proud to have my own children attend. As always, if you have concerns or questions, please feel free to contact us. Go Lions!!!

Marketing with Pizza Ranch

By Denise Snyders, Business Teacher

Last spring, the high school marketing class had a real-world business experience, with one student receiving a national endorsement for her idea. Schuyler Noteboom, manager of Rock Rapids Pizza Ranch, mentored these students by teaching them the segments of his business and discussing how each one needed to be marketed differently. He demonstrated different types of media that the Pizza Ranch uses to reach customers.

Schuyler then assigned the students a homework project—develop a marketing plan with the goal of helping grow the delivery business.

The students went to work on their ideas in class. When they met with Schuyler again two weeks later, he was pleasantly surprised with their marketing ideas, each unique. All the plans will be used by the Pizza Ranch, but Schuyler chose to present Katie Van Wyhe’s idea to Bulldog Marketing, the company that works for Pizza Ranch. Her idea was to give a $5 gas card with a delivery pack. Bulldog liked the idea so much that they pitched it to the entire chain. It was produced for 115 Pizza Ranch locations in 7 states. To top it off, Schuyler later received a call from the Director of Marketing at Pizza Ranch, Inc. who offered to put some money toward producing promotional materials. The recently added banner to the front of the Pizza Ranch is a result of this.

Schuyler said this in a letter to Mrs. Snyders, “Thank you for letting me work with the marketing class again this year. They did an exceptional job. I really enjoy the opportunity to work with the high school kids. It is fun to see them come up with new ideas. It has been a success for my business, and I know the kids take pride in seeing their work used in real-life settings.”

Schuyler Noteboom of Pizza Ranch mentored marketing students Nick Mans, Katie VanWyhe, Joe Drenth, and Tim Molitor.

Making the first day easier

- Remind your children that they are not the only students who are a bit uneasy about the first day of school.
- Point out the positive aspects of starting school: It will be fun. They'll see old friends and meet new friends.
- Find other children in the neighborhood with whom your youngsters can walk to school or ride with on the bus.
- Give your children some strategies for coping with bullies. They should not give in to a bully's demands, but should simply walk away or tell the bully to stop.
- If you feel it is appropriate, drive your children (or walk with them) to school and pick them up on the first day.
- Plan in advance for school supplies and involve your children with purchasing, labeling, and organizing them.
- Get a good night's rest and encourage eating a good breakfast. Choose and lay out school clothes the night before.

Community Welcomes New Principal By Curt Busch, High School Principal

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all of you back for the 2005-2006 school year. My contract as high school principal began on July 1, 2005. I am in the office daily as of August 1 and am available for any assistance I can provide to you.

Our family arrived in Rock Rapids on July 1. We were greeted by many family members, friends, and educators. Diane and I would like to sincerely thank all the people who helped with our move. We have a family of five and you forget how much stuff you accumulate over the years. Again, we are very appreciative of all the help we received and learned that many hands make the process a lot lighter.

Diane and I have three children who will be starting school this fall. Our oldest son, Brett, will be a sophomore, Clayton will be starting seventh grade, and Heather will be in fifth grade. This fall will be the start of my 25th year in education since I graduated from Central Lyon High School in 1977. I have taught 13 years in Iowa schools and have been an administrator for 11 years in Minnesota. My wife, Diane, is now employed as a registered nurse at Merrill Pioneer Hospital.

My family and I are excited about this opportunity to move to Rock Rapids. Again, thank you to all the friendly neighbors on Adams and Carroll Streets who have made our transition easier. I look forward to serving the students and staff at Central Lyon High School this fall.

Information for Parents

If your family lives in any of the following situations:

- In a shelter, motel, vehicle, or campground
- On the street
- In an abandoned building, trailer, or other inadequate accommodations, or
- Doubled up with friends or relatives because you cannot find or afford housing

Then, your preschool-aged and school-aged children have certain rights or protections under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act of 2001.

Your children have the right to:

- Go to school, no matter where you live or how long you have lived there. They must be given access to the same public education, including preschool education provided to other children.
- Continue in the school they attended before you became homeless or the school they last attended, if that is your choice and is feasible. If a school sends your child to a school other than the one you request, the school must provide you with a written explanation and offer you the right to appeal the decision.
- Receive transportation to the school they attended before your family became homeless or the school they last attended, if you or a guardian requests such transportation.
- Attend a school and participate in school programs with children who are not homeless. Children cannot be separated from the regular school program because they are homeless.
- Enroll in school without giving a permanent address. Schools cannot require proof of residency that might prevent or delay school enrollment.
- Enroll and attend classes while the school arranges for the transfer of school and immunization records or any other documents required for enrollment.
- Enroll and attend classes in the school of your choice even while the school and you seek to resolve a dispute over enrolling your children.
- Receive the same special programs and services, if needed, as provided to all other children served in these programs.
- Receive transportation to school and to school programs.

When you move, you should do the following:

- Contact the school district's local liaison for homeless education (see phone number below) for help in enrolling your child in a new school or arranging for your child to continue in his or her former school. (Or, someone at a shelter, social services office, or the school can direct you to the person you need to contact.)
- Contact the school and provide any information you think will assist the teachers in helping your child adjust to new circumstances.
- Ask the local liaison for homeless education, the shelter provider, or a social worker for assistance with clothing and supplies, if needed.
